

Constitution of State Services

(6) The State Services shall consist of the services specified in Schedule I to these rules and includes any other services that may be notified or as the case may be constituted by Government from time to time.

