

218. In all cases of submission of revised completion reports, full particulars should be furnished as regards the excess incurred and the circumstances under which the revision of the original completion report has become necessary.