

133. ‘Repairs’ may be divided into two classes : ‘ordinary’ and ‘special’. Ordinary repairs include—

(i) those which, as a matter of regulation, are carried out periodically and which are usually of the same quantity from time to time, such as the painting or whitewashing of a building, or a new coating of metal on a road;

(ii) other occasional petty repairs which may become necessary from time to time, and which may have to be carried out between the times of periodical repairs;

(iii) in respect of irrigation works all operations required to maintain in proper condition, the works, as they are, i.e., to standards laid down already.
