

31. An Executive Engineer is prohibited from commencing any work or expending any public funds, without the sanction of competent authority or from making any other than trifling deviations from sanctioned designs in the course of execution, except in case of emergency.