

P.S. 71. Recovery of money from contractor in certain cases :—In every case which provision is made for recovery of money from the contractor, Government shall be entitled to retain or deduct the amount thereof from any moneys that may be due or may be due or may become due to the contractor under these presents and/or under any other extract or contracts or any other account whatsoever.